Summer Institute Scholarships

May 8, 2012

Dear Illinois AAUP members,

This year the AAUP annual Summer Institute will take place in Chicago, July 26-29, at Roosevelt University in downtown Chicago. In order to encourage attendance at the Institute and to support those members who want to build an effective chapter at the institution, the Illinois AAUP state council is willing to reimburse up to $400 for each attendee (for a total of ten scholarships). Priority will be given to those members who have not attended the Institute and who are seeking to develop a chapter at their institution.

The attached form will explain the procedure for requesting support to attend the Institute.

For further information on the Summer Institute, please go to the link below.
